15956 – David Lloyd Phineas Pemberton October 22 1686

Philadelphia 12[d] [12th] 8br [October] 1686

Mr Pemberton [Phineas Pemberton]

Whereas I intended to have waited on [page torn] you to morrow [tomorrow] at yor [your] cort [court] But being prevented by businesses which came to me unexpected
I am constrained to give you this Trouble As to what matters may happen relating to me as Att: Generl [Attorney General] I pray you would be pleased to supply my absence [absence] & [and] if any of the ~~offend~~ offenders last cort [court] should come to pay or serve their fines in order to be discharged of their [page tear: Imprisonm...] [imprisonment] otherwise be pleased to serve such fines & [and] my fees in such manner & [and] method as in yor [your] prudence you think fitt [fit] as for Gilbert Wheeler he Ought to have considered me the Last tyme [time] [&c] [et cetera] which he neglected, I referr [refer] my self [myself] wholly to your self [yourself] allott [allot] me what seems reasonable to you:

I have also sent Deeds to be given to yr [your] widdow [widow] Pownall [Elinor Pownall?], If you chance to see her I would desire you to give ^her^ them at the rate as you take for recording such [strikethrough: illegible] regarding the Quality of her pay, I [strikethrough: illegible] would desire ready mony [money] (if to be had)

I have no news but we are very well & [and] quiet here I have had most of the page belonging to ye [the] [Conid?] Cort [court] & [and] patince [patience] seems very kind to me, we breakfasted yesterday together at Tho: Hollyman's [Thomas Hollyman]: he takes his liberty as to any Imprisonmt [imprisonment], he seems very free.
I have not had all the minuts [minutes] from Capt.
Marckham [Captain William Markham] relateing [relating] to Ben. Chambers [Benjamin Chambers] so that I could not make any progress [progress] in drawing up the Decree [&c] [et cetera] not Else but [page torn] Love to yourself [page torn] rest of yor [your] & [and] mine I [torn page]
